Mayors Youth Concert

The second Llantwit Majors Music Concert to celebrate Local Youth Talent was held in St Illtud's Church on Saturday 4th February 2017. There were a total of twelve acts watched by over 150 people. A big thank you to all who performed; Ben Tarlton, Llantwit Major Comprehensive School, Llanfair Primary School choir, Lowri Morgan, Christier Boxall, Patrick Sheppard, Nia Paddison-Rees, Ysgol Y Ddraig Primary School Choir, Rhys Richards, Rhodri Richards, Liam Taylor, Jess Bowen, Leah Elliot, Chris Norton, Nat Peters, James Cousins, Gareth Jones and Caitlin Dolman. In total just over £1000 was raised by selling tickets, refreshments, and a Raffle. The Ed Evans Foundation and Marie Cure Cancer Care were the Mayors chosen charities, which the money was raised for. A great night was enjoyed by all.

Panto is back Oh no it isn't – Oh yes it is!

After the success of the Cinderella Panto in December, it has been decided that we are going to do another in January 2018. The next panto will be the very magical, Aladdin! With jokes, songs and dancing, it will sure be an evening full of laughter for the whole family.

Hello and Goodbye

This month we say hello to our new Administration Assistant Jade Christophers, who started with us on the 13th February. Jade will be covering for Nia Page who is going on maternity leave at the end of March. We would like to wish Nia the best of luck and we can't wait to meet the new arrival!

Good News for Llantwit Major Residents ☺

The town council have decided there will be no increase in the precept for 2017/2018.

Valentines Dinner

Over 40 people attended the recent Valentines Dinner. Fab Italian food was enjoyed by all at the Il Vesuvio restaurant. A total of just over £250 was raised from doing the raffle at the event; the money raised will be donated to the Mayors chosen charities.
