Report from Town Clerk

The Town Clerk reported that a Town Partnership Meeting has been arranged on 8th July 2026 at 6pm at Llantonian Hall. This will be an informal discussion with all interested parties to discuss the aims of the group. A skip has been booked for the allotments on 7th July so will need to have helpers to watch if anyone from outside of the allotments use it. We would like all Councillors to help with the Food Festival this weekend, to put up the gazebo's and set up the tables and chairs etc, also the security guard needs to be relieved at 8am on Sunday. Also need help to take everything down when it finishes on Sunday. The new I.T equipment will be set up in the Council Chamber on 7th July. The Barry Recycling Plant visit has been arranged for Monday 6th July, so could Councillors please RSVP if they would like to attend. The Community Engagement Administrator job has been advertised, and we have had a high level of interest so far.

Report from Vale Councillors

Councillor S Hanks told the meeting that there will be a Heol Croeso meeting next week with police, residents and housing association so they can try and overcome the problems happening there at the moment. She will give an update at the next meeting. She also stated that Cosmeston Park was inundated with children displaying anti-social behaviour so there is now a Dispersion Order in place. Councillor J Norman stated that pollution and anti social behaviour was discussed whilst she sat on a committee meeting. Councillor E Williams reported that he would chase up the team doing litter picking and weeding from the Vale and ask them to liaise with the Town Council. The Let's Talk Survey is due to be launched again. There are 70 flats proposed to help and improve services to children's and adults social care.

Report from Placemaking Representative

Councillor Dr P Dickson gave an update. There has been a film produced from the Town Boost event, which is available on YouTube. The prioritising list was discussed at the last Town Partnership Meeting so details of that are on the Minutes. There is a forthcoming Town Partnership Meeting on 8th July. The Town Council to be asked for permission to write up Placemaking activities for local press once the Town Hall lift has been commissioned. He stated the need for a safe path to the beach is not in the funding of 'Transforming Towns'. This issue needs to be raised with Vale of Glamorgan Officers and as a priority need.
